

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

A call has been published for Convention in Boston, to be held on the 19th and 20th inst., to discuss the woman question, with particular reference to the ballot, and to form an association "for the wise, systematic, and efficient advocacy of woman suffrage and its kindred civil and political rights." Among the signers of the call are James Freeman Clarke, the Rev. J. M. Manning, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Col. Higginson, Judge Henry Chapman of Worcester, Prof. Child of Cambridge, A. Bronson Alcott, Miss Louisa Alcott, and Mrs. R. W. Emerson of Concord; Seth Hunt and Samuel May, Jr. of New Haven; Dr. George T. Strong, Mrs. C. M. Sedgwick, F. W. Eliot, George E. Bourne, Mrs. Bowditch, John E. Hartwell (Secretary of State of Rhode Island), Bowland G. Hazard, Miss Wilhelmina Sweet, Mr. Goss, R. Busell, John of Portland, and many others.

The Newark Advertiser says that on the 1st inst., Mrs. Nathaniel Ward received a visit from an elderly lady, her daughter-in-law, both of them property holders in the county, and tax-payers, appeared at the polls in Rosedale Park, accompanied by Messrs. Bogart and Ward, who were also there to witness their votes. The Judges of Election were divided as to the propriety of receiving the votes of the ladies, one of them stating that he was in favor of doing so, the two others objecting on the ground of illegality. The other ladies had voted before the election, and the voters, who were satisfied that in New-Jersey, women are legally entitled to vote, from the fact that the old Constitution of the State conferred suffrage upon "all inhabitants" worth $250. Under that Constitution women did not, very generally, vote, but in 1848, at an arbitration of the Legislature, women were excluded from the polls. The new Constitution adopted in 1864 was framed by a Convention and adopted by a Committee of the Legislature, and the provisions of the constitution excluded so that they have never been allowed to vote upon the question of their own disfranchisement. The article in the present Constitution on the right to suffrage is worded upon white male citizens, excepted only by law.

It is claimed that from the absence of any such limitation in the present Constitution, and from the compulsory exclusion of the parties interested from its adoption, the political rights of women under the old Constitution still remain. Miss Ward states that the bill of rights, which is clear and explicit, is excluded, so that the store and lot No. 113 Bowery, between Hester and Bond Streets, will come into possession of the New York Tribune, and will continue during the winter months. Special attention paid to Writing, Arithmetic, Bookkeeping. The very best teachers employed. Call for circular.
